

PHH Collision PreventionSM is finalist in 2007 Stevie Awards

May-17-2007

Great news! PHH Collision Prevention, a comprehensive fleet safety program designed to create a crash-free culture and dramatically reduce fleet risk, has been named a finalist in the "Best New Product or Service" category by The American Business AwardsSM, also known as the "Stevie" Awards.

PHH Collision Prevention uses an integrated, holistic approach to fleet risk. The program applies technology, consultation, measurement, and a unique patented methodology to increase driver safety. It's been shown to reduce major collision costs by up to 40% and cut accident rates by 5-40%.

PHH Collision Prevention is part of PHH Arval's 360° fleet risk and safety offering, which also includes telematics, predictive modeling technology, motor vehicle record checks and driver profiles, vehicle accident and maintenance services, insurance card management, and more. These elements can be purchased separately or combined for greater effectiveness.

Hailed as "the business world's own Oscars" by the New York Post (April 27, 2005), The American Business Awards are the only national, all-encompassing business awards program honoring great performances in the workplace. More than 2,000 entries from companies of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted for consideration in more than 40 categories. Stevie Award winners will be announced during the annual gala on Monday, June 11 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York City. The ceremonies will be videocast on the Internet and broadcast on radio, and hosted by Larry Wilmore of TV's "The Daily Show with Jon Stewart."

Stay tuned for more!
