

GM Canada announces final order entry date for select medium truck models

Feb-15-2008

General Motors of Canada has announced a Final Order Entry (FOE) date of February 22, 2008 for its medium duty GMC TopKick C-Series and T-Series models. These models include the C4500, C5500, C6500, C7500, C8500 conventional and T6500, T7500, T8500 tilt cabs. (Please note that GMC W-Series tilt cabs are not included in this announcement).

TopKick C&T-Series orders must be submitted into the GM system by the FOE date of February 22 to be considered for build in the 2008 model year or 2009 model year periods. Note: GM cannot guarantee production of 2008 model year or 2009 model year product, but places build priority on orders tagged as "sold".

What action is required by you:

- Determine if you require any of the above vehicles to be on the ground by December 31, 2008.
- Send those orders to PHH no later than February 20, 2008 for processing.

Please contact your PHH representative with any questions or concerns.
