

Ford announces immediate build-out of the 2008 Mercury Mariner

Mar-17-2008

Ford has just announced that due to a very large volume of Mercury Mariner orders recently received, the build-out date for this model has been changed to today, March 17, 2008. Considering the volume of orders currently in Ford's order bank for the Mariner, it is highly unlikely that units submitted after today, will be built as 2008 model year vehicles.

The launch date for the 2009 Mercury Mariner is June 23, 2008.
